

I do not agree with changing the rules governing broadcast ownership. I do not think that companies should be allowed to own more media outlets. I believe that the current rules should not be changed. I think allowing the further consolidation of media outlets will be very destructive to our democracy.

Thank you.

Sincerely,

Robin Van Norman